Send resume to Keith or call.

TRUEGRASS LISTENERS

Hey y'all, since our brand new record library will soon be in the pink, I will have access to some new records (although they might be a bit moldy due to pitifully dank record rooms and records have done time). If these fine pledgers have some music you'd like me to play, just send it to me c/o KRAB as a loan, donation or whatever. I will surely be glad to play it. An' if any of you out there have any twanging banjo or mandolin instrumentals I would especially like hearing from you as those tend to be my favorite.
Much obliged,
Jamie Hix

DETAILS

BLACK HISTORY MONTH: February is Black History month and to honor it, the Seattle branch of the National Council of Negro Women will present brief biographies of outstanding Black people in Seattle each day at 1:00 p.m. and again at 7:00 p.m. People such as Edwin Pratt, Priscilla Kirk, Robin Green and Sam Smith will be featured.

HUMANISM IN HISTORY: DR. GIOVANNI COSTIGAN: When we took this John Danz lecture series of 1975 off the shelf this fall for a rebroadcast, the response was overwhelming. Many people phoned and asked us to air it again. So beginning Wed., Feb. 11 and running through Feb. 13 at 2:00 p.m. you can hear this series again. See listings for specific details.

JULIAN PRIESTER QUINTET: A live performance of the renowned trombonist recorded at Parnell's on January 16. Fri., Feb. 27 at 9:00 p.m.

THE RISE AND FALL OF THE CITY OF MAHAGONNY: Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill's musical from Berlin of the 1920s, performed by the legendary Lotte Lenya. Fri., Feb. 6 at 8:30 p.m.

THE KRAB ACADEMY AWARDS: That's right. All the glitter, all the pomp & circumstance. Call in and vote for your faves. Friday the 13th, 8:30 p.m.

EXPERIMENTS IN DEMOCRACY

KRAB has received a grant from the Washington Commission for the Humanities to sponsor the "Experiments in Democracy" series. Project Director Doug Honig is researching the history of cooperatives in the Seattle area and will produce a series of documentaries to air on KRAB late next fall. Coops in many fields, such as food, health care, housing, and recreation will be studied, with a focus on how they have succeeded or failed to give people greater control over their lives.

The project has funding for two part-time positions:

1. Technical Assistant - 8 months, half-time, $416/mo.
Duties - Assist in taping field interviews, editing, dubbing, mixing.
Requirements - Strong background in radio production; car desirable but not necessary; flexible schedule.
2. Secretary - 3 months, half-time, $416/mo.
Duties - Transcribing tapes of interviews.
Requirements - Type 60 wpm.
Applications deadline: March 1. Drop off resume of relevant experiences in Doug's mailbox at the station. Doug could also use volunteer help with editing and research; course credit possibly available through some local colleges. For more info, contact Doug at 522-1017.
